[G] Oooo [D7] ooo ooo [G] ooo

[G] Oooo [D7] ooo ooo [G] ooo

If [G] General McAllister [C] gave up the wars

And [D7] all of the people went [C] back to their [G] chores

Then [F] all the King's horses and [C] all the King's men could go [G //] home [D7 //] [G //] [D7 //]

If [G] all of the people were [C] on the same side

There'd be [D7] no need to run there'd be [C] no need to [G] hide

And [F] all of us here in our [C] grey tattered coats could go [G //] home [D7 //] [G //] [G7 //]

If you'd [C] just listen sir once a[G]gain

To the [C] reasons of one of your [G] men

You could [C] make all these things come to [G] pass

And I could [F] lay on [C] Arkansas [G] grass

[C] Home [D7] home [G] go it a-[Em]-lone

To the [C] sound of the [D7] military [G] brass [G7]

[C] Home [D7] home [G] lovers a-[Em]-lone

[F] laying on [C] Arkansas [G] grass

[F] Once a-[G]-gain

[G] Oooo [D7] ooo ooo [G]ooo

[G] Oooo [D7] ooo ooo [G] ooo

So [G] bravely we marched both the [C] grey and the red

To [D7] lick 'em first time like the [C] good general [G] said

We'd [F] nary a thought that [C] so very few

Would go [G] home [D7] [G] [D7]

If it [G] weren't so wrong for a [C] soldier like me

To [D7] throw down his gun and [C] run to be [G] free

Then [F] all of us here with the [C] fear in our eyes would go [G //] home [D7 //] [G //] [G7 //]

If you'd [C] just listen sir once a[G]gain

To the [C] reasons of one of your [G] men

You could [C] make all these things come to [G] pass

And I could [F] lay on [C] Arkansas [G] grass

[C] Home [D7] home [G] go it a-[Em]-lone

To the [C] sound of the [D7] military [G] brass [G7]

[C] Home [D7] home [G] lovers a-[Em]-lone

[F] laying on [C] Arkansas [G] grass

[F] Once a-[G]-gain

[F] Laying on [C] Arkansas [G] grass

[F] Laying on [C] Arkansas [G] grass [F] Laying on [C] Arkansas [G] grass

[C] Oh [D7] oh [G] lovers a-[Em]-lone [F] laying on [C] Arkansas [G] grass [G!]
