[D] Wrapped in swaddling clothes, the [C] prince of [G] peace
[C] Wheels start [G] turning, torches start [Am] burning
And the [D] old wise men journey [C] from the [G] East

How a [Em] little baby [Am] boy bring the [D] people so much [G] joy
Son of a [Am] carpenter, [C] Mary carried the [Am] light
[C] This must be [Am] Christmas, must [D] be to-[G]-night [Em] [G]

[Em] A shepherd on a [G] hillside, where over my [Am] flock I bide
On a [D] cold winter-night a band of [C] angels [G] sing
In a [C] dream I [G] heard a voice, saying "fear not, [Am] come rejoice
It's the [D] end of the beginning, praise the [C] new born [G] king"

How a [Em] little baby [Am] boy bring the [D] people so much [G] joy
Son of a [Am] carpenter, [C] Mary carried the [Am] light
[C] This must be [Am] Christmas, must [D] be to-[G]-night [Em] [G]

[Em] I saw it with [G] my own eyes, written up [Am] in the skies
But [D] why a simple herdsman [C] such as [G] I
And [C] then it [G] came to pass, he was [Am] born at last [D] Right below the star that [C] shines on [G] high

How a [Em] little baby [Am] boy bring the [D] people so much [G] joy
