John Phillips

[G] [C]

[C]Early in the mornin, she [F]hitched a ride down to [G]Louisville..

[C]holdin' onto a [F]hundred dollar [G]bill.

[C]Dressed herself like a [F]Cajun Queen in New [G]Orleans, baby..

[C]yeah, she looked [F]good, like a [G]lady. [C //] [F //] [G] [C //] [F //] [G]

And the [C]Mississippi River [F]runs like molasses in the [G]summertime.

And [C]me, you [F]know, I don't hardly [G]mind.

[C]Sippin' on a beer in [F]Bourbon Street and I'm [G]sittin' easy.

[C]Don't get me [F]wrong, it takes a lot to [G]please me [C //] [F //] [G] [C //] [F //] [G]

[C]Have a seat and take a [F]load off your feet, [G]and she said, yes.

[C]So, I said, [F] I like your [G]dress.

[C]Swamps all around make ya [F]feel kinda funny, [G]don't they, honey?

She [C]crossed her legs and [F]looked at me [G]funny.

[C]Down on the bayou, [F]why, you never know just [G]what you're doin'.

[C]Down on the bayou, [F]why, you never know just [G]what you're doin'.

(What you're doin')

[C]Down on the bayou, [F]why, you never know just [G]what you're doin'.

(What you're doin')

[C]Down on the bayou, [F]why, you never know just [G]what you're doin'.

[D]Early in the mornin, she [G]hitched a ride down to [A]Louisville..

[D]holdin' onto a [G]hundred dollar [A]bill.

[D]Dressed herself like a [G]Cajun Queen in New [A]Orleans, baby..

[D]yeah, she looked [G]good, like a [A]lady.

And the [D]Mississippi River [G]runs like molasses in the [A]summertime.

And [D]me, you know, I [G]don't hardly [A]mind.

[D]Sippin' on a beer in [G]Bourbon Street and I'm [A]sittin' easy.

[D]Don't get me [G]wrong, it takes a lot to [A]please me.

[D]Down on the bayou, [G]why, you never know just [A]what you're doin'.

[D]Down on the bayou, [G]why, you never know just [A]what you're doin'.

(What you're doin')

[D]Have a seat and take a [G]load off your feet, [A]and she said, yes.

[D]So, I said, [G]I like your [A]dress.

[D]Swamps all around make ya [G]feel kinda funny, [A]don't they, honey?

She [D]crossed her legs and [G]looked at me [A]funny.

[D]Down on the bayou, [G]why, you never know just [A]what you're doin'.
